PROGRAMME OUTLINE

3 - 6 January - intensive language and cultural activities in Paris

7 – 26 January : language courses (26 classes per week plus cultural activities) organized by the Cavilam in Vichy. The Cavilam includes a three weeks half-board home-stay in Vichy. You return to Paris on the evening of your last Friday in Vichy, 26 January,

27 – 29 January : intensive language & cultural activities in Paris

Tuesday 30 January : FINAL ASSESSMENT SESSION you will have with Cpederf in order to gauge the progress you have made during the "stage. This will be followed by a Farewell Lunch.

You will be free to depart as from approx 3.30pm on Tuesday 30 January. Your accommodation is reserved until Wednesday morning, 31 January.

The pattern of your 28 days with CPEDERF/CAVILAM is as follows :

Tuesday 2 January : Arrival Day. To be settled in hostel or hotel by the evening.

Wednesday 3 January : Welcome Day and preparation for your four-week course. The day's programme will include a Get-together Lunch in a typical Parisian bistrot de quartier.

Thursday 4 – Saturday 6 January : Part 1 of your Paris programme

Both parts of your Paris programme will include all-day intensive language practice and cultural activities, the two being closely inter-related. Each day a different theme is treated - for example : Medieval and Renaissance Paris, Paris as capital of politics and power, Montmartre, French Impressionist

Painting, the Architectural face of Paris, the national Press, and the preparation of evening activities.

Major items will include a guided visit of Orsay where you will also be offered lunch in the gloriously decorated restaurant, (the National Impressionist museum), a guided visit of Versailles, as well as the Sainte Chapelle and of course the Louvre! You will also explore some of the most historic quartiers of Paris, such as the Marais and the Quartier Latin.

You will also have a choice of two additional visits : for example, the Musée Picasso, the Catacombes, the Cimetière Père Lachaise, the Orangerie, the Musée de la Musique, the Opéra, the Centre Pompidou. There is an immense range of possibilities, details of which will be sent to you later in the year.

Evening activities as part of the programme will include a major “spectacle”, as well as a theatre, a café-théâtre, and a cinema (or two!). In the group sessions you will be prepared for each visit, and be expected to participate in the subsequent discussions. In the evening also, a cruise on the Seine to see Paris by night, and of course a trip up the Eiffel Tower!

Sunday 7 January - Morning : you visit one of the great Paris street markets. Early afternoon : you take a fast train to Vichy where you will be met by members of the Cavilam and your home-stay hosts.

Monday 8 – Friday 26 January : Intensive French language course and cultural activities at the CAVILAM, with home-stay (where you will be able to practise your French).

The CAVILAM, affiliated to the Alliance Française and the Université de Clermont Ferrand is arguably the finest institution in France for the teaching of French as a foreign language and one of the very few catering for students with very short intensive courses. The ball starts rolling on the Monday morning with a series of placement tests to ensure you are placed in a group appropriate to your level. Then follow three weeks of intensive formal language classes, (26 classes and workshops each week), group practice and media resources back-up. Excursions, cultural, social and sporting activities organized throughout.

After classes on Friday 26 January : return by fast train to Paris

Saturday 27 – Monday 29 January : Part 2 of your language & cultural programme in Paris

Tuesday 30 January : Full morning assessment session - each participant will offer a short presentation in French on a topic developed during your stay in France and must take part in subsequent discussions, designed to assess your progress in French during the “stage”. This session will be followed by a Farewell Lunch in a well-known restaurant (which is also a classified historic building!)

Formal assessment reports & attainment certificates are given by both the Cavilam and Cpederf.

General information

AGE & ELIGIBILITY :

There is NO RESTRICTION ON AGE! Our two youngest students in the 32 years of the “stages” were 16 (enrolled with special approval with the local educational authorities and one came back for a second successive year!) and our oldest was over 80, and who was one of the youngest in spirit we have ever had with us!

There is NO RESTRICTION ON NATIONALITY : it does not matter what passport you hold, the only criterion for enrolment is that you are currently enrolled in an Australian or New Zealand University (OR that you have just completed your studies, OR will commence them in February 2018).

You do not need to be majoring in French! Many of our participants are enrolled in double degrees, majoring in such subjects as law, politics, economics, international studies, music, maths, computer science, history, medicine...but you must have, or intend to have, French somewhere in your university studies!

By November 2017, you must have completed at least a one-year beginner’s course in French at university if you have not studied French in high school. The general requirement is that you must be willing to (try to!) communicate with your host families without assuming that the members of the family will have a knowledge of English. High School students who have attained the age of 18 by 2 January 2018, who have studied French in their final year at school and who intend studying French at University may also enrol.

CREDIT POINTS, TRAVEL ASSISTANCE, OFFICIAL RECOGNITION OF THE “STAGES”

This is something you must take up individually with your university French Department. It is not something in which either the Cavilam or Cpederf are directly involved. You receive official assessment certificates at the end of the “stage” from both Cpederf and the Cavilam, detailed reports are provided, but credit points and travel assistance are something you must discuss with your university. Each university has its own policy in this regard.

TRAVEL : Neither Cpederf nor the Cavilam get involved in travel arrangements to France. Many participants have such varied travel arrangements (some coming over just for the “stage”, others spending a week or two, others here for a couple of months travelling through Europe...). The costs for the “stage” are therefore for France only.

HOME- STAY ACCOMMODATION IN VICHY (Cavilam) : As the essential purpose of the January “Stage” is to help you improve your listening comprehension and spoken French, you are strongly advised to accept the home-stay option while at the Cavilam. This way you will be speaking French at breakfast and throughout the evening with your hosts. (However for any who insist on alternative accommodation, the Cavilam can arrange self-catering studio or hotel room accommodation at little extra cost)

PRE & POST- “ STAGE” ACCOMMODATION : if you wish additional accommodation in Paris either before the commencement of the “stage” or after the official departure date, this can readily be arranged by Cpederf in either hostel or hotel at the special rates charged for the “stage” itself.

All medical, accident, travel & cancellation insurance is your own responsibility
